

End peace By Maré Mouton

The United Church in Worcester held its thirtieth annual flower show in November, with the pretty church decked out in the Biblical theme of "The Story of the True Vine" (John 15). Visitors to the show were touched and stood quietly listening when Sydney Berrington, a learner at the Pioneer School for the Blind, came in to practice for her singing at the Sunday service.